To Absolute Angels -

Dear Jeffie, This is a belated but sincerely meant thank you to you and all your staff. My sudden onset of ill health truly upset myself and family but you made it seem that no matter what occurred next you were prepared to help us.

Ronda was a blessing helping me to adjust and stay focused on getting better (Scrabble helped a lot). Having someone to talk to made the hours fly by. God sends his angels to remind us of all the good that surrounds us.

My thanks to Pat also for her cheery attitude in the hours she spent with me. I wish God's blessings
